

of, or extend credit to, such futures commission merchant or any proprietary account of such futures commission merchant.

(b) A futures commission merchant may deposit together with the secured amount required to be on deposit in the separate account or accounts referred to in paragraph (a) of this section money, securities or property held for or on behalf of other customers of the futures commission merchant for the purpose of entering into foreign futures or foreign options transactions. In such a case, the amount that must be deposited in such separate account or accounts must be no less than the greater of (1) the foreign futures and foreign options secured amount plus the amount that would be required to be on deposit if all such customers were foreign futures or foreign options customers under this part 30, or (2) the foreign futures or foreign options secured amount plus the amount required to be held in a separate account or accounts for or on behalf of customers pursuant to any law, or rule, regulation or order thereunder, or any rule of any self-regulatory organization authorized thereunder, in the jurisdiction in which the depository or the customer, as appropriate, is located.

(c) The separate account or accounts referred to in paragraph (a) of this section must be maintained under an account name that clearly identifies them as such, with any of the following depositories:

- (1) A bank or trust company located in the United States or as designated;
- (2) Another person registered as a futures commission merchant;
- (3) The clearing organization of any foreign board of trade;
- (4) Any member of such board of trade; or
- (5) Such member or clearing organization's designated depositories. Each futures commission merchant must obtain and retain in its files for the period provided in §1.31 of this chapter an acknowledgment from such depository that it was informed that such money, securities or property are held for or on behalf of foreign futures and foreign options customers and are being held in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.

(d) In no event may money, securities or property representing the foreign futures or foreign options secured amount be held or commingled and deposited with customer funds in the same account or accounts required to be separately accounted for and segregated pursuant to section 4d of the Act and the regulations thereunder.

(e) Each futures commission merchant which invests money, securities or property on behalf of foreign futures or foreign options customers shall keep a record showing the following:

- (1) The date on which such investments were made;
- (2) The name of the person through whom such investments were made;
- (3) The amount of money so invested;
- (4) A description of the obligations in which such investments were made;
- (5) The identity of the depositories or other places where such obligations are maintained;
- (6) The date on which such investments were liquidated or otherwise disposed of and the amount of money received of such disposition, if any; and
- (7) The name of the person to or through whom such investments were disposed of.

(f) Each futures commission merchant must compute as of the close of each business day:

- (1) The total amount of money, securities and property on deposit in separate account(s) in accordance with this section;
- (2) The total amount of money, securities and property required to be on deposit in separate account(s) in accordance with this section; and
- (3) The amount of the futures commission merchant's residual interest in money, securities and property on deposit in separate account(s) in accordance with this section. Such computations must be completed prior to noon on the next business day and must be kept, together with all supporting data, in accordance with the requirements of §1.31.

§30.8 Quarterly reporting requirements.

(a) Each futures commission merchant required to be registered under this part shall file written quarterly reports on a form specified by the National Futures Association at the National Futures Association's headquarters office in Chicago, Illinois, by the tenth business day of the month following the quarter covered by the reports.

(b) Each report shall contain the following information separately for each foreign board of trade on which foreign futures contracts or foreign options transactions were effected:

(1) The total number of foreign futures contracts, separately by contract, long and short, customer or proprietary, executed during the quarter on such board of trade on behalf of the futures commission merchant or its foreign futures customers;

(2) The total number of foreign futures contracts, separately by contract, long and short, customer or proprietary, open on such board of trade on behalf of the futures commission merchant or its foreign futures customers as of the close of business on the last business day of the quarter;

(3) The total number of foreign options, separately by underlying futures contracts or by underlying physical for options on physicals, by put, by call, and by customer or proprietary, executed during the quarter on such board of trade on behalf of the futures commission merchant or its foreign options customers;

(4) The total number of foreign options, separately by underlying futures contracts for options on futures contracts or by underlying physical for options on physicals, by put, by call, and by customer or proprietary, open on such board of trade on behalf of the futures commission merchant or its foreign options customers as of the close of business on the last business day of the quarter.

§30.9 Fraudulent transactions prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any person, by use of the mails or by any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, directly or indirectly, in or in connection with any account, agreement or transaction involving any foreign futures contract or foreign options transaction:

(a) To cheat or defraud or attempt to cheat or defraud any other person;

(b) To make or cause to be made to any other person any false report or statement thereof or to enter or cause to be entered for any person any false record thereof;

(c) To deceive or attempt to deceive any other person by any means whatsoever in regard to any such account, agreement or transaction or the disposition or execution of any such account, agreement or transaction or in regard to any act of agency performed with respect to such account, agreement or transaction; or

(d) To bucket any order, or to fill any order by offset against the order or orders of any other person or without the prior consent of any person to become the buyer in respect to any selling order of such person, or become the seller in respect to any buying order of such person.

§30.10 Petitions for exemption.

Any person adversely affected by any requirement of this part may file a petition with the Secretary of the Commission, which petition must set forth with particularity the reasons why that person believes that he should be exempt from such requirement. The Commission may, in its discretion, grant such an exemption if that person demonstrates to the Commission's satisfaction that the exemption is not otherwise contrary to the public interest or to the purposes of the provision from which exemption is sought. The petition will be granted or denied on the basis of the papers filed. The petition may be granted subject to such terms and conditions as the Commission may find appropriate.

§30.11 Applicability of state law.

Pursuant to section 12(e)(2) of the Act, the provisions of any state law, including any rule or regulation thereunder, may be applicable to any person required to be registered under this part who solicits foreign futures and foreign options customers and who shall fail or refuse to obtain such registration, unless such person is exempt from such registration in accordance with the provisions of §30.4, §30.5 or §30.10 of this part.
